Fix Studies Of Pupils In 8th Grade

School Head Announces
Full Curriculum With Fundamental Subjects

A full curriculum is contemplated for the eighth grade students when grammar school opens Monday, September 18, Superintendent Gerald Smith announced yesterday. A course of study has been set for the new grade which will be inaugurated in two weeks at the school. Since the 7th grade, installed last September, and the 8th grade are part of the elementary school system, fundamental subjects will continue to be taught.

In some junior high schools, covering the 7th through the 9th grades, it happens that fundamental subjects are dropped as separate courses, Mr. Smith stated. This means that sometimes writing, spelling, music, etc., become electives, and are not taught as a part of the regular curriculum. At the grammar school, however, these subjects will be carried right on through the higher grades.

Social science, language, arithmetic, general science, physical education, music and art will be taught in the new grade. In the social science course, a study of the United States and its relations with foreign countries, politically and economically, will be stressed, as well as international trade. Language course will include a study of how to speak and write—creative expression. Spelling and literature will be taught also. Reading will be taught as remedial work for those children who are poor in that subject. In other cases reading will be taken up in connection with regular studies, such as social science.

A general science course will be offered comparable to that given in the eighth grade in Pasadena schools. Laboratory work will be included. A standard arithmetic course is planned.

Fifty minutes each day will be devoted to physical education, or more specifically, a health program.

"Boys and girls under separate teachers will be given a 50-minute period every day, when instruction in games, such as football, basketball, volleyball, handball, tennis, badminton, etc., will be given," Mr. Smith said. "Attention will also be given to posture and some remedial work for those who are slightly handicapped, such as flat feet, etc., though correct posture will be emphasized most."

Rest and relaxation periods will be supplied for those children who are more in need of it than exercise. Instruction in hygiene, as it applies to daily living, such as proper food and exercise, will be given.

Music and art work are scheduled daily, with fine and industrial art, various kinds of painting, drawing and free expression—individual ideas in posters, modeling and other work. A certain amount of woodwork will also be taught in the 8th grade. Chorus, individual singing, a study of technical phases of music and appreciation of good music through radio, records, and sound pictures will be given, in addition to instrumental music taught by Mr. Boyer, part-time instructor at the school.

Farewell Party For Arthur Schiltz As He Leaves City

A farewell party for Arthur Schiltz, son of Mayor and Mrs. W. J. Schiltz, who left Saturday evening to return to his studies at the Passionist Fathers Seminary in St. Louis, was given by six of his former classmates at St. Rita's school, Thursday evening. Dinner in Los Angeles followed by a theatre party comprised the entertainment. Arthur's vacation periods are now over, and he will remain at the Seminary for the next nine years.

Shop Saturday For Stores Will Close On Labor Day

Stores, markets, bank, post-office and all places of business will be closed Monday, September 4, Labor Day—so Sierra Madreans are advised to do enough shopping on Saturday to take care of a long weekend. Hordes of citizens have planned parties at mountain resorts, beaches and lakes—to take them away from regular business routine for a few days and give them an opportunity to relax in cool breezes. This is the only holiday in September, with the exception of Saturday, September 9, Admission day.

Building Of More Homes Authorized

Mt. Trail Property Acquired For Construction Of Several More Dwellings

Rapidly climbing to the high level attained here before the lumber strike, building activity in Sierra Madre went forward this month with permits for two homes issued by Building Inspector William Lees. Repairing and remodeling is being done on homes all over the city, from northerly points on Vista Circle drive to locations as far south as Suffolk. Permits for two garages and one garage house were issued, and re-roofing seems to be popular now. In anticipation of autumn rains, hammers and saws are making music everywhere.

Construction started this week on a new dwelling home at the corner of East Montecito avenue and Mountain Trail, Armitstead and Gamble, Inc., East Green street, Pasadena, builders, purchased eight lots on the east side of Mountain Trail avenue from Montecito avenue to Highland avenue, and plan to build small homes on the property after it is subdivided. The first home, permit for which was issued this week by Mr. Lees, will be constructed of channel rustic siding, with attached garage. A small brick porch fronts the house.

H. A. Howard is building a new home at 210 Mariposa avenue, very attractive home built on file with the building inspector.

Two dwellings have been built by Maurice Lasky of Los Angeles on the north side of East Sierra Madre, between Canyon and Coburn avenues. Early in the spring Mr. Lasky undertook a pretentious building program, contemplating construction of 11 five-room homes which he intended to sell. The first two homes have been completed.

Other building permits issued during the month went to Ada Oswald, 61 Bonita avenue, re-roof; R. E. Wright, 590 West Alegria avenue, insulation; M. Rechin, 5 Carter avenue, re-roof; Harry Herring, 91 Viled Circle drive, re-roof; Earl C. Wilcox, 580 Wilcox road, garage house; G. R. Lovejoy, 74 West Grand View avenue, garage; G. Yerxa, 90 East Suffolk avenue, alterations; Sierra Madre school district, alter store-room.

New Heating System Being Installed At Grammar School

With a view to improving the heating and ventilating system at the grammar school, final tests were made Wednesday with two new gas heaters of the vent-type, installed by a contractor which is the best for permanent installation. A rotary ventilator has been placed in one of the class rooms to see if it will stop the down-drafts which present a problem. Workmen are repairing the storehouse in the rear of the main building prior to the opening of school.

Marrying Couples Must Take Physical Examinations Now

Organized groups throughout the state have voiced their approval of the law requiring premarital health examinations and blood tests for syphilis which will become effective in California on Tuesday, September 19. Because early symptoms of the disease are so slight as to go unnoticed by an infected person, only a physical examination and blood test will reveal that the disease is present.

Every man and woman marrying in California on and after September 19, must present to the county clerk a certificate signed by a physician before a marriage license is issued. The examination and blood tests must be made within 30 days before the day a marriage license is issued. Persons who come to California from other states to marry must have certificates, also. They may be examined either in California or in their own state. Results of examination and blood tests are confidential and not a part of any public record.

DRAMATIZE WORK OF HALF MILLION BOYS AND GIRLS AT LOS ANGELES COUNTY FAIR

Between 18,000 and 20,000 individual exhibits representing the endeavors of more than half a million school pupils, Boy and Girl Scouts, 4-H and Future Farmer Clubs and other youth organizations will be included in the junior fair and educational departments at Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona Sept. 15 to Oct. 1. Occupying two huge buildings, the display will form one of the largest and most comprehensive of the kind ever attempted in the southland according to school and club officials. The exhibits will range from livestock to mid-air airplanes for the boys and from homemaking to doll clothes for the girls.

Hunton Pleads Not Guilty As Trial Set

Entering a plea of not guilty, Miles S. Hunton, 41, of 169 East Laurel avenue, will appear before Judge Smith in Los Angeles, Monday, October 2, for trial. Hunton was charged with soliciting another person to commit a crime and was arraigned August 28 before Superior Judge Clarence L. Kincaid in Los Angeles. He appeared before the same judge yesterday and entered his not guilty plea.

New Kiwanis Club Gets Away To A Flying Start

Music furnished by Sierra Madre Kiwanis club added enjoyment to the meeting at Temple City Tuesday noon with practically the entire local membership attending. In addition to Sierra Madre's delegation, members of clubs in Alhambra, San Gabriel, Ontario and Pasadena journeyed to Temple City to participate in putting over a splendid program for the new club. Lieutenant-Governor Ross Wright of Glendora was present, as well as A. W. Alt-house, president of the Pasadena club.

Dr. M. H. A. Peterson led the gathering in Kiwanis songs, and Miss Orline Burrow, prominent Sierra Madre violinist, played three numbers, accompanied at the piano by Gus Rihard, music committee chairman. Clarence L. Jay, Altadena architect and past lieutenant-governor of District 10, was the principal speaker and stressed the fact that Kiwanis clubs should be looked upon as a melting pot, wherein the best mental, spiritual and physical factors are thrown together and united in serving the communities where they are located. Creating a better relationship between men, a feeling of brotherhood, and spirit of co-operation among residents of a community were outlined as basic principles upon which Kiwanis clubs are founded, Mr. Jay stated.

"Ham an' Eggs" Will Be Discussed And Eaten At The Vine

In keeping with the program for the evening which will be a forum discussion of the California Retirement Pension Plan on which California will vote November 7, a menu of ham and eggs is being planned by Bruce McGill for the Sunday evening supper at Wistar Vine Gardens. Tim Smith, advocate of the "30 Every Thursday" plan will speak in the affirmative and Perley Poore Sheehan will help to keep the discussion revolving around the most contested points of argument. Another speaker will be William Peeler, director of the pension plan organization.

Miss Kortkamp On Way Back To New York

Miss Moreland Kortkamp who has spent the summer here with her family, left Tuesday morning for New York where she will spend another year of study with Rosina and Josef Lhevinne. En route she will enjoy a stop over in Alton, Ill., to visit relatives.

Thrilling Pictures Attract Crowd That Sets Another Attendance Record Here

Next Tuesday's Free Show Sponsored By Local Businessmen May Include Appearance Of Championship Drum And Bugle Corps—Feature Picture Is "Amateur Crooks," Hilarious Comedy—Big Things Coming

ANOTHER attendance record in Sierra Madre was shattered when the largest audience yet to attend the free open air motion picture shows turned out at city park Tuesday evening for the best entertainment yet presented by the sponsoring businessmen. It was a delighted audience, many pictures were shown, therefore the show was too long. But they were good pictures and few left before the screen went dark, shortly before 11 o'clock. The first picture flashed on the silver sheet at a little after 7 o'clock.

Frank Buck's "Bring 'Em Back Alive," proved tremendously interesting and the feature picture, "Let's Sing Again," was thoroughly enjoyed, as was the travelogue, "A Trip Through Yellowstone Park," and two cartoons.

"Amateur Crooks," a hilarious comedy that has proved a hit wherever it has been shown, is the feature picture for next Tuesday, September 5, at the city park. It is a story about amateur crooks who decide to help solve a robbery mystery and abounds in ludicrous situations. In addition, there will be a news digest and a cartoon, as well as an adventure aboard an airliner which will be shown through the courtesy of one of the transcontinental air lines.

It is highly probable that the screen entertainment will be augmented on Tuesday by the championship San Gabriel Drum and Bugle Corps. This noted Legion organization has held the state championship for eight years and is a big drawing card wherever it appears. Appearance of the corps at one of the merchants' entertainments has been promised, with the probability that it will be next Tuesday.

Later, possibly the following week, the Legionette's band of 25 pieces has promised to give a concert preceding the picture show. Also, the Los Angeles County Forestry Department has promised in the near future to exhibit its film showing the fighting of forest fires in the neighboring mountains and details of its fire prevention and conservation activities.

Next Tuesday's performance will not be as long as that of this week and the first picture will go on the screen as soon as darkness makes its showing possible, probably about 7:10 or 7:15.

FIRE CHIEF FINDS SIERRA MADRE IS PLAYGROUND FOR HILL DENIZENS

Wild Life More Abundant
Now Than At Any Time
Since City Has Grown Up

BROWN bush rabbits scamp about all over town early in the morning is a common sight to Fire Chief W. D. Richards who patrols around the city about 5 o'clock, while most people are still snoozing.

"I never saw so many animals in Sierra Madre in my life," declared the chief, adding that he runs across bunnies in every part of the city. Quail, too, are especially plentiful this year, and occasionally a shy deer runs in front of Chief Richards's patrol car. Opossums are so numerous they are a decided nuisance, and several children with the animals under their arms have been seen heading for Kersting Court where Sam, shoeshine man, takes good care of them until evening when he puts them in a sack and carries them off to his home.

A pair of red fox was reported at the lower end of Bailey Canyon and a short time ago police officers were called to Woodland Drive where they disposed of a rattlesnake which had wiggled its way too close to canyon homes. Residents in the northern section of the city say moon struck bunnies cavort over gardens and parking, doing considerable damage to bulbs and flowers. Trapping the animals has developed into quite a business.

Sierra Madre is a unique city, with modern, beautiful homes, up to date markets, one of the loveliest, best equipped schools in the valley—and yet an abundance of wild life.

Tearing off through the North First avenue business section in Arcadia last week, a 60-pound spiked buck led a "posse" of Arcadia and Monrovia police headed by R. E. Jefferies, fish and game warden, a merry chase before he was captured. Barking dogs frightened the animal from his haunts in the game refuge. He raced across Foothill boulevard, east of the wash. The warden and his young son finally came upon him in the bushes bordering the wash, and tried to direct him back to the game refuge in the foothills, but the buck had other ideas, for he turned around and fairly flew down First avenue and was finally captured near a service station at First and Colorado by young Jefferies. The warden and his son returned the buck to the refuge near the Santa Anita dam.

Wheat Stalk Grows Right Out Of An Ear Of Corn

Husking 12 ears of corn which she purchased at a local market, Mrs. Ben Lyon of 780 Canyon Crest was astounded at the oddity revealed when she removed the husk of one ear and found not only a perfect six-inch ear of corn, but a two-inch wheat stalk growing from the tip of the ear. Evidently a grain of wheat found its way through the husk while the corn was in the growing stage, took root, and with the moisture from the corn, continued to grow to the two-inch length. At the very tip of the wheat segment, two tiny kernels of corn appear. Mrs. Lyon brought the unusual sample to the NEWS office where the garden freak may be seen.

Registration Of Voters Is On Here

Enrollment For Coming Important Election Will Close
September 28

Endeavoring to attract all newcomers to Sierra Madre who have not registered for the general election, November 7, Mrs. Tillie Stimpfing and Mrs. Helen Lovejoy started out Tuesday morning to work in the seven precincts and round up citizens before the deadline for registration, Thursday, September 28. In addition, citizens may register at the city hall.

Newcomers to the city are required to register in order to vote and any Sierra Madreans who have moved since the last election are likewise required to register. Any person who has not voted at either a primary or general election in the last two years, must re-register to vote in November.

Those reaching 21 years of age between September 28 and November 7 may register at the regular time, but in any case, must have resided in the state for a year.

For the benefit of those citizens who are doubtful as to their voting status, the following information is given: If you failed to vote in August, 1938, and November, 1938, and failed to vote in November, 1938, your registration is not cancelled. Neither is it cancelled if you voted in November 1938, and failed to vote in August, 1938.

Absent voter ballots may be secured beginning October 18 until November 2.

New Mountain Fire Station Will Help Sierra Madre

Preparatory to building a guard station and shelter for fire fighting equipment and barracks for a fire crew, grading of a plot of ground at Red Box divide was completed Monday by the United States Forest Service. Although plans not yet been prepared for the new station, Supervisor William V. Mendelsohn stated it is planned eventually to have a complete fire control setup established there. This will be the protective agency for Angeles Crest Highway and surrounding mountain watershed just above Sierra Madre.

A water line is being constructed from a spring in Cedar Springs canyon, one mile above Red Box on the Mount Wilson road, in order to supply the new station. CCC men from Angeles Crest camp are working on the pipe line and at the same time are on call for back country fire fighting duty.

First Year Students At PJC Must Take Examination

Sierra Madre students who intend to enroll at Pasadena Junior College this month as members of the junior class are reminded of necessary required examinations which must be completed before registration.

Placement examinations are required of every student upon entrance to the junior year of PJC. They include a psychological examination, test of general reading ability and a test of reading backgrounds and ability to express oneself in written composition. Results are written in the college guidance program, and each entrant will be assigned to the proper level in English composition, according to the degree of proficiency indicated in the examinations. C. C. Stewart, Director of Placement Examinations, said.

Students are to report at 8 o'clock Saturday, September 9, at the East Campus college student union, pay $1.50 fee, secure two blue books and a special examination pencil at the Student Union. Those who are late will not be permitted to take the examination, and students who took the test on June 10 need not take it again.

Funds Arrive For $195,000 Channel Job

County Supervisor Here To Inquire Into Local Improvements

Sufficient money has been received from the state to start work on the Little Santa Anita channel to a point 900 feet south of Grand View avenue. This is part of the 4,000 foot channel strip from Grand View to Santa Anita avenue in Arcadia which will be improved with a permanent concrete bottom. Work was held up pending assurance of state funds to add to $155,991 approved in the WPA appropriation by Congress. Total cost of the work is estimated at approximately $195,000, and the State Emergency Relief was petitioned for the difference, approximately $38,000.

Supervisor William A. Smith, whose efforts were largely responsible for securing the funds, spent several hours in Sierra Madre Friday, discussing this and other projects with officials at the city hall and going over details of the work.

More than half the debris which filled the dam at the head of Sierra Madre canyon during the March 1938 storm has been removed, and trucks are still hauling away sand, rock and gravel at the rate of 1,000 yards a day. Work is progressing rapidly on the Acacia street bridge, with cement being poured this week. Abutments have been completed on the East Grand View avenue bridge, and work is now being done on the deck structure.

WPA offices have been established at the corner of Grand View avenue and Hermosa to take care of the regrading and repaving job at Grand View from Mountain Trail to Lima street, which started Tuesday.

Street paving on Manzanita avenue has been completed from Park avenue to Michillinda blvd. This is part of the city's street improvement project whereby property owners pay for material costs and the city through its gas tax allocation, takes care of labor and engineering expense. Next street to be paved on this basis is Mariposa avenue from Park avenue to Lima street. When this is completed, work on the last street in the project—Sunnyside avenue from Grand View to Fair View will begin.

Woman's Club Will Begin Next Week

So much enthusiasm for a weekly dance program at the Woman's Club has been shown by members of the younger set, that plans for the first dance to be given at the clubhouse next Friday evening are well under way. A joint committee of senior and junior club women is conferring on arrangements and hope to make this affair enjoyable for all of the younger members of the community whom heretofore have had to find much of their recreation out of town.

Want Sierra Madre Singers In Valley Opera Company

San Gabriel Valley Opera Company is sending a call to Sierra Madre singers to join the chorus for juniors, 14 to 20 years of age, and seniors, from 20 to 40 years old. Auditions will be held at 129 South Atlantic blvd., Alhambra, on Tuesdays and Fridays from 8 to 9 p.m. Junior group will hold rehearsals every week on Wednesday evenings and the Seniors on Tuesday evenings, beginning September 12.

Three Daring Maids Win Attention

Mildred LeGuin, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dickson, 169 West Montecito avenue, and two friends from Alhambra were prominently mentioned in a Concord, Mass., paper last week under the heading, "Three Daring Maids." The article reads:

"Three venturesome young women from Alhambra, Calif., shortly out of high school, recently came all the way by bus from coast to coast to visit the World's Fair in New York, Concord, and other points of interest. They were Mildred LeGuin, Marguerite Perkins and Katherine Cole."

Miss LeGuin, whose mother once lived in Concord, is a grandniece of Mrs. Cyrus Benjamin, who with Mrs. Marion Fairbanks of West Concord, entertained them during their stay. It is interesting to note that Miss LeGuin's great-grandfather, George Gray, once owned and lived in the Hawthorne House, "Wayside," and his son, G. Arthur Gray, a Past Master of Corinthian Lodge of Masons, executed those murals and paintings still extant on the walls of what is known as Hawthorne's study. These young women left for home last week by bus, via Washington, D.C."

Rose Garden Won't Believe It's Really Midsummer Here

It isn't often that even the most successful horticulturist can produce first class blossoms on field grown rose bushes in midsummer, but the 360 three-year old plants, set out and cared for under the supervision of J. R. Vore in his garden on the Raymond Lewis estate at West Orange Grove avenue and Michillinda Blvd., are producing around eight dozen splendid blossoms for cutting every other day. Mr. Vore who has long been recognized as an outstanding landscape architect and horticulturist and responsible for some of the most beautiful street plantings in this part of the state, also has had two hundred and fifty pink amaryllis in full bloom this week and has 750 plants for late bloom. Last year Mr. Vore planted seeds of many varieties of cascade chrysanthemums and will select the best types from this group to develop next year for decorations on the estate. These are only a few of the plantings undertaken by this enthusiastic gardener, who in addition always has a colorful showing of the best annuals in season.

Mr. McCarthy received the contract on the seventh day after the script left his hands.

SHE'S COMING BACK

Credited with being responsible for the great popularity of ice skating in Southern California through its previous appearances here, the "Ice Follies of 1940" will make its world premiere September 7 at the rebuilt Pacific Ice Arena on Beverly boulevard, with graceful Bess Ehrhardt, "America's Sweetheart of the Ice," and Roy Shipstead, conceded the world's greatest living skater. Twenty skating stars and an ice ballet of 80 complete the picture.

George McRoberts, Jr., has returned to UC at Berkeley to resume his course in mechanical engineering.

O.E.S. WILL SERVE HAM DINNER TUESDAY

Another of the delicious ham dinners that have made such a hit with Sierra Madreans will be given by the Eastern Star Chapter at the Masonic Temple at 6:30 Tuesday evening. Since most citizens will be out of town over the long holiday weekend, and refrigerators may be rather empty, the committee suggests that the whole family enjoy dinner Tuesday at the Temple. Reservations may be made by calling 2112.

MOOSE AND BEARS ARE GARDEN VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Proctor who have been vacationing in the east for several weeks are now enjoying an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. George MacMillen of Toronto, at their summer home in the Hudson Bay region, which is so wild that moose and bears are not unusual visitors in the garden.

God intends no man to live in this world without working; but it seems to me no less evident that He intends every man to be happy in his work.—Ruskin.

GO ARMED

It's the gift of a three-day holiday that Labor Day brings with it, and California highways will again be filled with the speeding caravans of pleasure-seekers, bound for mountains, seashore and vacation resorts.

It is, in fact, summer's last vacation offering to workday world. Let's make it a happy holiday, unbroken by the crash of crumpling fenders, or worse, the tragedy of accidents.

Go armed with the stout weapons of caution and courtesy on the highways. Let the other fellow take the chances, while you take the precautions! He may make the headlines—with a crackup! But you'll make home—in safety! So here come summer's last holidays. Let's make them happy ones. Good work at the car wheel will do much to help!

LOOK THEM OVER

Would you sign a mortgage or contract without first carefully checking it?

Most people would not, but many—too many—will nonchalantly endorse any legislative petition placed before them. They forget that this hasty action may endanger their welfare, and that of several million other Californians. Such indifference makes fertile feeding ground for the professional promoter, and today threatens to upset the model anti-loan shark legislation passed at Sacramento in June. Interests opposed to this much-needed legislation are misrepresenting their referendum petitions as an effort to reduce interest on small loans.

Read petitions first before signing them. Such caution may not only save ink—it will protect your government!

CCC Boy Draws 90-Day Sentence For Burglary

Nineteen-year old Thomas Plumley of Fontana was sentenced to spend 90 days in the county jail at his arraignment Friday before Police Judge T. W. Neale for petty theft. A CCC boy, Plumley was charged with entering the home of District Ranger C. E. Harlan and taking a camera at the time he was assigned to work at the Santa Anita Ranger Station.

WILLING TO HELP

Editor, Sierra Madre News:
At this dry season when there is so much danger of forest fires it would seem desirable to increase the number of forest guards and also their equipment.

While this should be a federal concern, it is, of course, an immediate need so it might be necessary to raise a local fund until such time as Federal money is available.

Personally, I should be glad to contribute to such an important cause.

Sincerely yours,
A. L. W.

Modern Debs
Celebrate by Drinking MilkBy PATRICIA LINDSAY
© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

A FEW days ago in a popular New York paper this item appeared:

The pretty, blond debutante, Lesley Bogert of Newport, arrived at a popular night club after midnight last night with a party of friends. The party all drank champagne with the exception of Miss Bogert, who followed the current debutante milk fad!

And there you have it. Society's younger, pampered darlings have more sense than you would believe! The majority of debutantes, past and present, are in their 'teens and they go to more parties in a week than you and I are likely to attend in a month or two months!

What would happen to the health and beauty of these young girls if they sipped cocktails and highballs at every party?

A large percentage of New York's debutantes have hopes of careers even as you and I. They are not going to jeopardize their chances of a successful career or a good marriage. They protect their beauty by getting plenty of rest—even if they have to sleep in daytime hours—and by carefully watching what they eat and drink.

Rochelle Hudson is just one of Hollywood's younger set who believes in passing up cocktails for more health-giving drinks. On the way to stardom she knows what's best!

Beauty Requires
Proper Diet

Young beauty, it is true, can stand a lot more wear and tear than older beauty. Nature does allow a quick rejuvenation of tired tissue, and muscles of the youthful body naturally have greater duration of strength. That is why many younger girls feel that they can eat and drink what they desire, and sleep when they want to, without losing any of their fresh beauty.

They rely on strong facial muscles, unstrained tissue, and other youthful assets, to see them through. But woe to those who do not realize that nature demands consideration or she just falls down on her job! Those girls find themselves tired looking at 20, and completely faded by thirty when any American girl should be her most beautiful!

What you feed your body with is of primary importance. From milk—which is almost the perfect food—your body can draw nourishment and provide strength. It is one of the most important items of any girl's diet unless she is allergic to it. It keeps the bloom in her cheeks, wards off tooth decay and other diseases, keeps her bones strong and her eyes clear.

How much wiser for young girls to sip milk at parties than to dull their senses, and poison their blood with strong drinks. I'm no grundy, girls, but my hat goes off to Miss Bogert and girls like her who plan for the future!

What is your daily grooming? Check up on it by sending a self-addressed, stamped (3-cent) envelope care of this newspaper for my leaflet—Don'ts of Good Grooming.

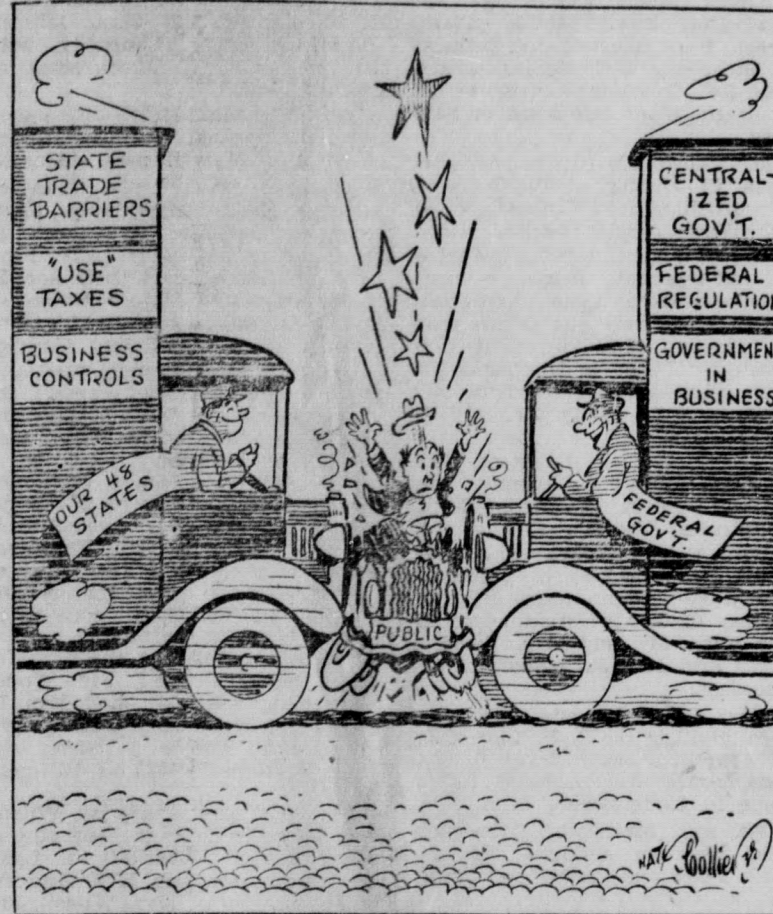

HINT-OF-THE-DAY

If you have been down in the dumps and life has grown humdrum it is time you changed your coiffure!

An outstanding New York physician urges women to occasionally change their hair dress. He claims it boosts their dejected spirits and gives them a new outlook on life. "It is almost miraculous," he says, "how a new and becoming hair style can give a woman fresh beauty and thus change the current course of her life. Her interest in things somehow becomes stimulated anew and in a short time the period of dejection passes."

Books as Prisoners
The destruction of the Bastille in Paris, shortly after its seizure and the release of its prisoners on July 14, 1789, revealed hundreds of books that were also serving sentences. All had been duly arrested, says Collier's Weekly, tried and convicted of containing criticism of the past four kings.

CAUGHT IN THE MIDDLE

"Let there be an end to secret diplomacy!" was a cry that ran round the world when the World War ended. "Open covenants, openly arrived at," affirmed the slogan heralding what was to be a new era of lasting peace, as the Treaty of Versailles and the years immediately following, exposed the whole shabby tissue of Europe's pre-war diplomacy, with its secret "deals," its secret commitments, its secret alliances. But though the world suffered catastrophic losses and underwent incalculable sufferings during that war, it seems, indeed, to have learned little. Events of the past weeks indicate Europe has returned to the old game of secret diplomacy it knows so well. Behind the very backs of British and French envoys, Russia negotiated her peace "deal" with Germany. In last week's crisis, as in 1914, Italy remained mute and indecisive. All over Europe, chancelleries hummed with the busy chatter of diplomats, envoys and foreign ministers, as if war—or peace—were exclusively THEIR affair. From all the momentous decisions of the past week, the voice of Europe's man in the street was excluded, though his shoulders must bear the momentous burdens of war. Open covenants, openly arrived at with the knowledge and consent of all citizens may be hoped for, but as they do not exist, Old Europe learned her bitter lesson in the last war—and promptly proceeded to forget it.

U. S. Webb, former attorney general, says: "If the Thirty-Thursday plan should become law, it would bankrupt the State of California and everybody in it, and would discredit California among the sisterhood of states."

Eighteen companies have agreed to eliminate all billboard advertising in rural districts of Pennsylvania. The Associated Clubs of Pennsylvania for Roadside Development reports after a campaign of letters to billboard advertisers. The association's 800,000 women members are campaigning to restore roadsides to their natural beauty and states plans to eliminate billboards and roadside junkyards have been endorsed by the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women and the State Planning Board. A bill introduced in the California Legislature by Senator Ed Tickle of Carmel last spring to effect a similar improvement in California scenery was choked in committee by sign painters union representatives and representatives of the billboard corporations.

For the first time in more than a decade the taxes per motor vehicle in use failed to show an increase over the previous year. In 1938 the average motor vehicle in the United States cost its owner $57 in taxes, a slight drop from the high figure of $58.50 set in 1937. Even with the decrease, the 1938 tax cost represents an increase of 75 per cent over 1928.

Higher education, definitely, is getting into the higher figures. Here, for example, is the University of California expecting to tally a Fall registration of 18,357 students. A gain of approximately one thousand over last year, it is likewise the largest student body on record. During the last 40 years the march of youth to universities and colleges has moved at an ever accelerating tempo. In 1900, you would have found a mere 114,000 students in attendance at colleges and universities. Last year, you would have discovered all of 1,350,000. And this year, if the University of California registration is typical, you will see college attendance growing to even greater size. Scarcity of jobs plays its part in this, for as youth sums up the case: "If I can't get work, I may as well study." We won't vouch they're all studying, but that the ranks of college-bound youth are the largest in history there's no mistaking.

Another hat was tossed into the political ring the other day when Rep. Bankhead of Alabama indicated he'd accept the Democratic presidential nomination—if Alabama wants him to. So many hats have now been flung into the ring, only one thing seems fairly certain: A dark horse will come prancing along and trample those hats beyond hope of repair!

The most recent fracas between Japanese and Russian forces on the fringes of Mongolia has come to an end. But frankly, a war in which both sides kept winning victories was too good to last, anyway. On three days of the week, Tokyo issued bulletins cit-

HAD PLENTY TO SAY!

This man is sore about a sloppy printing job he got from out of town. He said plenty! But there are laws about putting what he said in print.

There ought to be a law against bum printing. But we don't need that law for our printery. Years of experience have proved to local business men that they can rely on our work. They like its quality and low cost. We can do better work for you... now!

CHEYNEY TWIN GETS BROKEN ARM IN FALL

Timely Tips
By Florence Matheny
Home Economist, Southern Counties Gas Company

LIGHT as a stanza of summer poetry and fluffy as a ruffle are the summertime "foams" we call Snow.

Whip, Fluff, Sponge, or Bavarian. Descendants of the Syl-labus of idyllic memory and near kin to Zabaglione, Topsy, Trifle and Puff; the members of the foam family used to be more distant of personality; but modern usage has made many of the terms interchangeable. So long as you serve them, does it matter?

BANANA BAVARIAN
1 package orange-flavored gelatin
1 1/2 cups hot water
Dash of salt
1/4 cupful sugar
1/2 teaspoonful grated orange rind
1/2 cupful orange juice
1/4 cupful heavy cream
1 1/2 cups finely diced ripe bananas (2 to 3)
Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add salt, sugar, orange rind and juice. Chill until thick and syrupy. Whip cream until thick and shiny but not too stiff. Fold in gelatin. Fold in bananas. Chill until slightly thickened. Turn into 1 large or 8 small molds. Chill in automatic refrigerator until firm. 6 to 8 servings.

SOUTHERN SNOW
1 envelope plain, unflavored gelatin
1/4 cupful cold water
1 cupful boiling water
1/2 cupful sugar
1/2 cupful orange or grapefruit juice
1 teaspoonful grated lemon rind
2 egg whites
1-8 teaspoonful salt
Softened gelatin in cold water. Dissolve in hot water. Add sugar and salt, stir until dissolved. Add the fruit juice and rind. Chill until thick and syrupy. Beat with rotary beater until consistency of whipped cream; fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into large mold, chill until firm. Serve with custard sauce. Serves 6.

DATE-NUT WHIP
1 cupful pasteurized dates, sliced
1 cupful marshmallows, quartered
1/2 cupful Brazil nuts, chopped
1 cupful cream
1/2 teaspoonful vanilla extract
Few grains salt
Beat the cream, add flavoring. salt and fold in dates, marshmallows and nuts. Pile mixture between halved lady fingers or slices of sponge cake, or use to fill cream puff shells.

FIRE FLAMES

Quite a few of us are going to be retired from the fire department on account of age in the near future. We all hope that we can still retain the same interest in the fire department work that is shown by Frank Hildebrandt, a former active member and now an honorary member. Frank never misses a meeting if it is possible for him to be there. His experience and general knowledge of the equipment is of invaluable aid at the drills. Not only does he attend the meetings, but he feels that he must provide a big feed every so often. Last week, Frank brought from home what was declared to be the best tamale pie that was ever consumed. He must have thought the boys were exceptionally hungry, if the amount of food was an indication. As he appeared at the top of the stairs with the large container, someone asked him if he was bringing in the washing.

Every so often the policemen on the late hour shift finds a resident has gone to bed and left a bonfire smouldering in the yard. Just recently one was discovered that had grown into a large blaze, sufficient to confuse the neighborhood into sending in a fire alarm had it been seen by a neighbor. The fire, according to the man of the house, had been thoroughly soaked before he retired. Putting water on a large pile of burning rubbish may not reach the middle section and after a few hours of simmering will invariably grow into a blaze. This endangers the surrounding territory. Let's keep the Fire's Out.

What A Girl Sees Ramblin' 'Round

SEARING, sizzling desert heat holds no terror for modern motorists. There was a time when crossing desert country was a real adventure. To be undertaken after due deliberation, but with the new idea of using dry ice to lower temperatures within automobiles the desert may be crossed at any time of the year, not only in safety, but in comfort, according to the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club. Dry ice, properly used in a car, will lower the temperature from eight to ten degrees. It is claimed, and 20 pounds of carbonic ice is generally sufficient to cool a sedan for 10 to 14 hours. It costs only a nickel a pound. For fifty cents one may purchase enough to cross the desert in comfort. But it's a good idea to get detailed instructions for its use from the manufacturer.

Sierra Madreans who happened to be looking at the mountains northeast of Baldwin avenue last Thursday afternoon, saw an unusual sight. At the top of the mountains, dark against a bright blue sky, a clump of fluffy white clouds stood out. Just one big round cloud, like a giant tablespoon of whipped cream dropped on the tip of the mountain, just for Sierra Madreans to admire.

"The water's swell at the swimming pool. I'm going in every day until school starts." This was the general opinion of a group of young people who gathered around Kersting Court one warm evening. They had spent most of the day at the Canyon swimming pool. Only a few more weeks remain for boys and girls to take advantage of the Kiwanis club's free swimming ticket offer. Each Monday tickets are handed out to the first 50 children who call for them at the city hall, and the old swimming hole is one of the most popular places in town. Jim Healey did considerable fixing at the pool this year and Sierra Madreans were quick to respond. Until the last few weeks when free ticket dispensation at the city hall has dropped off a bit, for no good reason, what with the warm weather and all.

Proving once again that nothing is certain but death and taxes a local citizen was considerably irked. When the horse of his choice at a certain race track paid $12, but the Sierra Madrean's $10 bet was never placed. Unable to place the bet himself, he put his greenback in care of a young woman with instructions to put it on a certain horse. The horse came in but it didn't pay our local citizen because the bookie patronized by the young woman was raided by Los Angeles police.

Little Pat Allan Lovejoy has a way with women, even movie stars, even Dorothy Lamour. Saturday at Santa Anita Rancio the Russell Lovejoys, with small son Pat Allan, were watching movie players film parts of "Typhoon," starring Miss Lamour. The actress consented to go back to the road and say hello to the crowd that had gathered. The Lovejoys were thrilled, of course, at being so near the lovely lady, but Pat Allan had a little more curiosity than his parents and strolled right out in front, standing with his hands behind his back, watching Miss Lamour pet a tiny baby in the crowd. The director noticed Pat and called Miss Lamour's attention to "Little Jealousy." The first thing Pat knew Miss Lamour had picked him up, loving him and talking to him.

Revel of John Steven McGroarty's "Mission Play" at the Civic auditorium in Pasadena September 25 to 30 is already creating much local interest, with several Sierra Madreans making arrangements for parties to attend the opening. During the years when the play had an annual season at San Gabriel it was an outstanding tourist attraction in Southern California. With Lucetta del Valle, now Mrs. Henry S. Grady, wife of the present assistant Secretary of State, one of the principal members of the cast. Some years ago rights were sold by the author, Mr. McGroarty, and the play subsequently went out of production. Recently Mr. McGroarty reacquired the rights, and the scheduled production at the Civic is the result. With Mrs. McGroarty taking the responsibility for costuming, as she did in former times.
